1. Baez filed applications to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Department of Transitional Assistance, for food stamps and income assistance for low-income households, June 31, 2002, September 12, 2002, and October 7, 2002. On fifteen occasions thereafter, from November 4, 2002 to March 2, 2004, Baez sent monthly certifications to the Department regarding her income and assets in order to establish her continuing eligibility. Medical assistance is provided by the Department once eligibility for income assistance is approved. Declaration of Special Agent Chris Robinson (hereafter Robinson Decl.) ¶ 5, attached as Exhibit 1 to this memorandum.

2. Baez represented to the Department of Transitional Assistance, in her initial application and her subsequent monthly certifications, that her household either had no income or had income of only $400 per month. Robinson Decl. ¶ 5.¹ Her statements disclosed no assets, other than an automobile that she disclosed on or about June 31, 2002, and an automobile that she disclosed on or about October 7, 2002. Id.

3. On the basis of her representations regarding her income and assets, Baez received $12,282 in income assistance and food stamps, and $17,614 in medical assistance, $8,807 of which was paid by the federal government. Robinson Decl. ¶ 6.

4. Baez did not disclose real estate or cash assets, which were material to her eligibility for low income assistance. Robinson Decl. ¶ 7.

5. Baez was ineligible for income assistance, food stamps, and Medicaid. Robinson Decl. ¶ 8.

6. The income assistance that the Massachusetts Department of Transitional Assistance provided to Baez was funded by the United States through the Transitional Aid to Families with Dependent Children (“TAFDC”) program for low-income households, authorized by 42 U.S.C. Subchapter IV (Grants to States for Aid and Services to Needy Families with Children and Child-Welfare Services). Robinson Decl. ¶ 3.

7. The food stamps provided to Baez were funded by the United States through the Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to 7 U.S.C. §§ 2011, 2013, and 2027. Robinson Decl. ¶ 2.

8. The Medicaid assistance provided to Baez was funded by the United States through its program for medical assistance to low income households, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Subchapter XIX, 42 U.S.C. § 1396. Robinson Decl. ¶ 4.

Baez' Public Housing Claims

9. Baez resided in a four-bedroom apartment at the Boston Housing Authority's Franklin Field development, Ames Street, Dorchester, Massachusetts, from on or about September 21, 2001, until on or about April 2004. Declaration of Joan Shea, Franklin Field Housing Development Boston Housing Authority (hereafter Shea Decl.) ¶¶ 1, 3, Exhibit 1 to this memorandum.

10. Baez filed applications for public housing at the Boston Housing Authority (hereafter, BHA) on July 14, 1998, September 13, 1999, November 30, 1999, January 25, 2000, and September 28, 2001, representing that she was the head of household of, variously, from five to seven persons and that her income was either zero, $118 per week, or $180 per week, and that her boyfriend, Jose Geronimo's, income was either zero per week, $125 per week, or $200 per week. Shea Decl. ¶ 2b-d. Baez disclosed no assets. Id.

11. After Baez moved into public housing she filed four certifications regarding her income and assets, on November 5, 2001, July 15, 2002, November 12, 2002, and June 5, 2003, each representing that she and her household had minimal income and disclosing no assets. Shea Decl. 2e-f. The purpose of these certifications was for the BHA to determine whether she continued to be eligible to live in public housing and, if so, determine what part of the rent she was able to pay. Shea Decl. ¶ 2(f).

12. Based on Baez' statements regarding her income and lack of assets, the BHA charged Baez rents of $123 per month from October 1, 2001, through September 2002, $636 in October 2002, $123 per month from November 2002 through September 2003, and $229 per month from October 2003 through April 2004. Shea Decl. ¶¶ 6-9.

13. The difference between the Fair Market Value of Baez' public housing apartment and the rent that Baez paid for the apartment was $50,843.50. Shea Decl. ¶ 10. See ¶¶ 6-9 (fair market value for the different rent periods).

14. In or about January 2004, the BHA filed an eviction action against Baez based on the Authority's determination that Baez had failed to report material facts regarding her income and assets in violation of law and her lease. Shea Decl. ¶ 5.

15. Had Baez disclosed to the BHA that she owned residential and/or commercial property and/or owned, controlled or earned substantial cash assets, the BHA would have denied her application for public housing because she and her household were not "low income" and were ineligible for housing subsidy. Shea Decl. ¶ 4.

16. Franklin Field housing development is financed by the United States through the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, pursuant to the National Housing Act. Shea Decl. ¶ 11.
